RAY SOCIETY PUBLICATIONS AVAILABLE FROM STOCK.

General and Historical:

Volume 163: In celebration of the Ray Society, established 1844, and its founder George Johnson (1797-1855). 1994. Eight facsimile prints with 8 sheets of descriptive text by various authors. 35x45cm. With an introductory essay by E.Platts and a list of Ray Society publications compiled by E.Platts and D.Heppell. 1994. Limited to 500 sets. Members concessionary price £40.00 unmouted and £60:00 mounted, a set. Retail price £89:95 (plus £36:00 if mounts required). ISBN number: N/A.

Zoology:

Entomology: No titles currently available

Botany:

Concessionary Sales of these titles are available from: Dr N. J. Evans, Honorary Secretary, The Ray Society, c/o The Department of Zoology, The Natural History Museum, South Kensington, London SW7 5BD. Members concessionary prices are inclusive of post and packing. Members are entitled to one copy at the concessionary price (where offered) and to further copies at a 20% discount on the retail price, again inclusive of post and packing. Where members' concessionary prices are not indicated members can purchase copies at a 20% discount on the retail price, again inclusive of post and packing.

Also various out of print Ray Society works are available as CD ROMs (produced in association with Pisces Conservation Ltd. See separate leaflet for details.)

The Ray Society is a Registered Charity No. 208082.